School Performance Plan/Title I:

- CIP - Continuous Improvement Plan is a part of SPP - now a roadmap.
- First five events part of planning
- Next three events look at data
- Event nine - make it all beautiful and send to district and state for approval. The due date is November 30, 2021

Betsy Question: Who is participating in putting the plan together?

Cris Response: Staff Volunteers, parents from SOT

Family Engagement Policy

- Need to have the family engagement plan approved for 2021-2022
- We can have both in-person and virtual family events
- Per Roxanne - Remind should be up and running
- As part of the plan, can feature a Tech 101 for parents and students
- Oct. 15th Mack is hosting Parent Night Out event.
 - Will feature Dentist, HPN, and the Fire Department

*Amendments to plan voted on and unanimously approved

Repoyment

- Didn't get all of the chromebooks back
- Currently not giving chromebooks to students that have one from somewhere else - priority is for students that don't have one at all

Opening of School

- Lots of new staff
- Numbers were a little low but have improved. Still concerned about Special Education
- We are two weeks from count day
- Just shy of 100 kids in distance learning
 - Participation high among distance students
- We are fully staffed - two staff members working on credentials

Korda

- PBL team started before the school year - currently on their 2nd course
- Expect update from them next week

Pilot Program Update

- 45 minute call coming up the last week of August
- September we will have a new team going through training
- Run by Ms. Aplin

Summer Extravaganza

- There were happy kids and teachers
- Asking team members to join Nevada Succeeds for a year long fellowship
 - Will start in October

Betsy Question: What will be the benefit of the fellowship?

Roxanne Response: good press, reimagining what we are doing for kids, will pilot cool stuff on our campus

Betsy Question: Will there be a special education component?

Karen V response: There should be - if there is not, will push for it.

Next Meeting Agenda

- Roadmap
- Tentatively scheduled for September 20th, 2021
